LEGISLATIVE GLEANINGS, LANGE Mr. Trimble called up his preamble and resolu-tion which was published in the Senate proceedings of Tuesday last.

Amended by adding the names of James Buchanan and John G. Breekinridge to the list declared infamous and worthy of death, on motion of Mr. Keith, who stated that he had been a Democrat,

Noes—Bowen, Frazier of Knoz, and Johnson, Mr. Frazier of Knoz, in veting no, explained hat he coincided with much in the preamble and resolution, but there were things in them for which he could not concientiously vote. PROTEST OF MB. ROWEN, Mr. Bowen offered the following protest against the action of the Senate in regard to Senate joint resolution adopted during the morning session, and requested that it might be spread upon the The undersigned asks to present the following protest as his reasons for voting against Senate join Resolution No. 18, in relation to Jefferson David

1. The preamble and resolution are, in his opin ion, partial and unjust in their discriminati that they leave out names equally or more guilt; han those mentioned.

2. To say that James Buchanan is one who "de the law," is, in his opinion, absurd and even crim-inal. Whatever his political opinions were there is not the slightest pretense that he ever committed
